Your Booking Details

Thank you for booking your flights with Jet2.com, we look forward to welcoming you onboard.

Jet2.com is a ticketless airline, however, when baggage items have been pre-paid, all customers must be present with a copy of their booking confirmation.

In all cases you must have your unique booking reference (see right) and valid identification for travel to receive your boarding card.

Dear Rebecca,

Thank you for booking your flights with Jet2.com.

Your booking reference is: 2MF67Q

Online Seat Selection and Check-in

As you have selected to check-in online, please remember to go to the 'Manage my booking' section on the Jet2.com website, check-in and print your boarding pass.

This can be done anytime from 28 days and up to 5 hours prior to departure – failure to present your valid boarding pass at the airport will result in you having to pay an additional charge on departure.

If you are taking hand baggage only and have checked in online, please go directly to airport departures with your online boarding pass.

Important Notice

Your carriage is governed by the Warsaw Convention or the Montreal Convention. These Conventions govern and may limit the liability of carriers for death or injury, destruction, loss of, or damage to, baggage, and for delay. The applicable limits of liability of Jet2.com for baggage and delay are as per the Montreal Convention. In the case of destruction, loss of, or damage or delay to baggage, this is limited to the local currency equivalent of 1,131 SDR's and 4,694 SDRs for delay to your journey. If your baggage has a greater value than the limit of liability, you may make a special declaration and pay a supplementary sum, or alternatively you should fully insure your baggage prior to travel.
